The Youth Day celebration commenced with a formal inauguration led by the esteemed chief guest, Mr. Raju Kendre, symbolized by a ceremonial ribbon cutting. The event was gracefully hosted by Ms. Prajakta Davidson, who extended a warm welcome to the dignitaries and provided an insightful introduction to the programme. Mr. Raju Kendre was felicitated by the Principal of MGM MTCN, Dr. Satish Buyite Sir, in recognition of his inspirational work and contribution towards youth empowerment and social development. Ms. Davidson then delivered a thoughtful overview of the Youth Day theme, highlighting the vital role of youth in nation building and social transformation. This was followed by an enlightening keynote address by Mr. Raju Kendre, who shared valuable perspectives on leadership, responsibility, resilience, and the power of youth in driving positive change in society. Subsequently, a scholarly panel discussion was convened, organized by the first and second-year M.Sc. Nursing students of the Department of Community Health Nursing. second-year M.Sc. Nursing student, and featured an articulate panel comprising Mr. Madhav Palve, Mr. Abhijit Wahul, Ms. Prajakta Davidson, and Ms. Swati Khedker. The panelists engaged in a stimulating dialogue on youth challenges, opportunities, and the relevance of the day's theme. The programme concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Mr. Madhav Palve, expressing gratitude to the chief guest, organizers, participants, and students for their collective efforts in making the Youth Day celebration a meaningful success.
